Sustainable Seafood:

What you should know about the Seafood you eat.

An informative presentation by local biologist Steve Hendricks. Monday, April 18th 7pm at St. Ben's.

What are the best seafood choices and why? Does it matter how seafood is harvested or farmed? What seafood is healthy / unhealthy for you? Explore various commercial fishing methods, including fish farming, and their impacts on the marine environment.

Steve Hendricks grew up on the Central Coast and holds a BS in Fish Biology from Humboldt State, and MS in Fish Biology from Oregon State and worked more than ten years as a fish biologist. He has taught biology at Cuesta and Hancock colleges the past 10 years. Steve is an avid fisherman who is concerned about the future health of our oceans.

The Third Sunday of Easter—Year C

Welcome to our parish as we begin the third week of the church's celebration of Christ's resurrection. The theme of this Sunday's liturgy is Jesus' revelation of his risen life in the Holy Eucharist: the breaking of bread and sharing of the cup. This year we hear John's account of the meeting that took place between the disciples and the Lord on the shore of the sea of Tiberias. It culminated, as did so many of the resurrection appearances, in the Lord sharing food with his disciples and in that way making himself known to them.

The reading from Acts is the account of Paul's conversion from his stance an enemy of Christ and a persecutor of the church to its greatest missionary and preacher.

The second reading from the Revelation of John envisions the final conversion of the entire human race and of the whole creation. It seems likely that the image of the heavenly worship in this book was inspired by the author's own experience of the church's Eucharistic worship.

From the very beginning of the Church's life, the Holy Eucharist has been a major means of conversion to faith in Christ. The conversion which the Spirit has begun in us in Baptism is nurtured and deepened in Holy Communion. The risen Lord, made known to us in the breaking of the bread, continues his work of redemption in the lives of people in every time and place.
