Lectio Divina with Isaiah

Lectio is not Bible study, but a kind of prayer .
Lectio is not learning what the words means,
but listening for the Word that gives meaning.

Lectio for December 12 – 16

|           |             |
|-----------|-------------|
| Monday    | Isaiah 2:2  |
| Tuesday   | Isaiah 2:3  |
| Wednesday | Isaiah 2:4  |
| Thursday  | Isaiah 2:5  |
| Friday    | Isaiah 11:9 |

Read the passage slowly, silently or aloud. Take a few minutes for silent reflection, and identify the words that speak to you.

Read the passage a second time, and listen to the text again. Ask yourself, "How does this speak to my life today?"

Read the passage a third time, and ask yourself, "What do I believe God wants me to be...or do? Is God inviting me to change in any way?"

Conclude with prayer (not a prayer of words, but a time of remaining open to the Spirit who speaks through the lectio).

Make a record of the thoughts, images, and insights that came in your time of prayer.

Community Christmas Carol Singing
(and Mulled Cider Quaffing)
3pm Tuesday, December 20 at the Abundance Shop

Christmas at St. Benedict's

Blue Christmas Service ~ Sunday, December 18, 5:00 pm

For those who are sad during the Holiday season, St. Benedict's Church is again offering a simple non-denominational service which focuses on the hope and the comfort of the season. Participants are invited to stay for a soup supper and conversation after the service.

Christmas Eve Eucharist ~ Saturday, December 24, 8:00pm

It's our most popular service of the year. Enjoy the magic of Christmas Eve carols, readings and the mystery of Holy Communion.

Christmas Day Celebration ~ Sunday, December 25, 10:30 am

Holy Eucharist, followed by Brunch.

Q: "Who is my neighbor?"

A: "Homeless people of all ages -- children, adults and the elderly."

St. Benedict's members have traditionally made special donations to the clients of Prado Day Center during the holidays. One way you can provide immediate help to our neighbors who are cold and hungry is to give gift cards that can be used for food, clothing and other items (such as cards Food for Less or Target). If you want to remember our neighbors in this way please contact Alice Welchert. She will see that cards, money or checks get to the right place. You can also provide after school activities for homeless children by writing a check to the SLO County Parks and Recreation Department.

Keeping in Touch during the Week. For counsel & spiritual care, please contact any of the clergy: The Rev. Dr. Caroline Hall, 704-5826; The Rev. Mary Elizabeth Pratt-Horsley, 528-7497; The Rev. Donna Ross, 235-5117; The Rev. Barry Turner, 784-0670; or The Rev. Faye Hogan, 541-4595. Call Celeste Pennington with pastoral care & prayer chain requests, 771-8974.
