

Benediction Weekly

November 8, 2015

St. Benedict's Church is an inclusive Christian community that celebrates the divine in all beings, and inspires spiritual growth through joyful sacramental worship, loving service, creative expression, thoughtful inquiry and commitment to social justice.

Today is In-gathering Sunday when we turn in our financial pledges for 2016. Cards were mailed to your home this week, and will also be available at the church. If you cannot be at church today, please mail in your card or return it as soon as possible.

Thank you!

Special Parish Meeting Next Sunday

As you have heard in the Benediction newsletter and the letter Caro+ sent this week, there will be a special Parish Meeting next Sunday, on November 15. so that we can listen together for God's guidance about the generous gift we have been given and think about how we will best use it in our mission and ministry. Please plan to attend. Lunch will be provided. The meeting will be over by 1:30pm. Caro+ will be joining us.

Practice Lectio Divina this Advent

Advent speaks to us about living in God's Kingdom with a different story about time. It's a story larger than our own lives, beyond optimism or pessimism. It's been called a future or an "eschatology of eventfulness." It is a way of being attentive to our inner lives and at the same time seeing all creation alive, in the rhythm of reality and promise. Reality is anything that happens at any moment. The change which comes to us moment to moment is a gift. We are invited to receive these moments as events worthy of our loving and a challenge for our living. Accept the moment with thanksgiving and trust the promise that it is a gift from God. It points and carries us into God's future. Advent reminds us to pray for strength to do what is necessary to fill the present with faithfulness and with genuine waiting for God. An opportunity for contemplative reflection upon several of the scripture texts appointed for Advent will be offered again this year at St. Benedict's on Thursday mornings, Dec. 3, 10 and 17 following the first three Sundays of Advent, at 10 am. We will follow the practice of Lectio Divina, the contemplative reading of scripture. The sessions will be jointly led by the Rev. Donna Ross and the Rev. Barry Turner.

The second meeting of the Green Group will take place on Thursday November 12 at 11am. Everyone is welcome to join this group which will be helping members to tackle the burning issue of climate change on many levels - personal, practical and political. For more information talk to Joe Morris, Bob Pelfrey or Alice Welchert.

"Noach Tangeras: A Voice For Climate"

Fundraising Concert for People of Faith for Justice - 3pm Sunday, November 15th at St Ben's

Noach Tangeras is a singer/songwriter acoustic guitar player. Her Americana-style band has strong roots in folk, country, blues, and rock. Her power-house vocals might leave you thinking of some names like Janis Joplin, Patsy Cline, or Joss Stone as she sings out about the issue of Climate Change. Proper 27: Sunday closest to November 9—Year B

Welcome to our parish. As we approach the end of the church year, our readings from the Gospel of Mark deal with the final days of Jesus' ministry. In that period, Jesus was in direct conflict with the religious leaders in Jerusalem. In today's passage Jesus contrasts the simple faith of a poor widow, expressed by her generous giving, with the show of religiosity put on by the scribes and the rich.

The first reading today is one of the stories of the prophet Elijah. In a time of famine, the generosity of a poor widow who shared with Elijah the tiny bit of food she had left is rewarded by God.

The passage from Hebrews, which we are reading through at this time, deals with the eternal nature of Jesus' priesthood. Unlike the symbolic sacrifices of the old priesthood, Jesus' sacrifice on the cross and his resurrection and ascension has made him uniquely able to take away the sin of the world for all time.

The people of God in every age have gathered in the Eucharist to respond to salvation in generous and loving ministry to each other and the world. Made part of Jesus' own sacrifice in baptism, we are joined with his sacrifice in the Eucharist. Thus, our own sacrifices, like those of the two poor widows, are given the eternal significance of Jesus' own dying and rising. What is lacking in us through our own imperfection is made perfect in Christ.
