

Benediction Weekly

June 19, 2016

St. Benedict's Church is an inclusive Christian community that celebrates the divine in all beings, and inspires spiritual growth through joyful sacramental worship, loving service, creative expression, thoughtful inquiry and commitment to social justice.

There will be a parish meeting today, following the 10:30 service, to brainstorm ideas for the future use of our buildings and grounds. We want input from the congregation in order to design a vision plan for our church facility. If you can't stay for the meeting please fill out the survey form to voice your thoughts. Over the next few months we will be drafting a plan that will cover short-term and long-term needs for our facilities. With a plan in place we will be ready to take full advantage of future gifts and to develop the Blessing the Future Campaign.

Proper 7: The Fifth Sunday after Pentecost — Year C

Welcome to our parish. The liturgy today has as its central sign God's power to save and restore human life to wholeness. The gospel reading is about the man possessed by a legion of demons. The man had been abandoned by his neighbors. Jesus has compassion and drives out the demons, restoring the man to his right mind and to his community.

Today's reading from the epistle to the Galatians is a continuation of Paul's teaching concerning salvation by faith. It is that faith which brings us into a living relationship with God. That relationship transcends all human distinctions. No one is outside God's family. The sign and meaning of that relationship is baptism, the sacrament in which we are adopted as God's children and in which we are united with Jesus in his dying and rising.

The liturgy of the Eucharist brings us together as those who in baptism have "put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female," for in this liturgy we are all one in Christ Jesus. God does not reject those who are far from God, not even those who are living in disobedience. As Christ healed the demoniac and God forgave the unfaithful of Israel, so the divine compassion is operative in our lives today.

Only Time Will Tell

Poetic Justice Project (PJP) will be presenting a new play titled Only Time Will Tell which depicts personal journeys of incarceration and reentry. The play is being held at St Barnabas' Episcopal Church in Arroyo Grande on Saturday June 25th at 7 pm and Sunday June 26th at 2 pm. PJP is also giving its first performance at Unity Chapel of Light in Orcutt on Friday, June 24th at 7 pm. The tickets are $15 and available at the door or by calling Brown Paper Tickets, 1-800-838-3006. Come and support this fine organization in their rehabilitation goals of providing art instruction to prisoners, people on parole and probation, and youth at risk of incarceration. PJP is the only theatre company in the state comprising formerly incarcerated actors appearing in plays that examine crime, punishment and redemption. See Alice Welchert for details.

San Luis Obispo Deanery At Central Coast Pride 2016

The eight San Luis Obispo Deanery churches will be sponsoring a booth at Central Coast Pride on July 10 at Mission Plaza in San Luis Obispo. Anyone in the San Luis Obispo area Episcopal churches is invited and encouraged to join us. If you are interested in helping us out with setup, staffing, and cleanup, please contact Jeff Diehl (jdiehl@albionenvironmental.com). The festival will run from noon to 5:30pm, but setup will begin at 8:30am. This is a great opportunity to tell lots of people about God's inclusive love for all.
